Jefferson Parish

Jefferson Parish schools have opened a call center to help support the mental health needs of their employees and families during the COVID-19 pandemic.

School employees and parents or guardians of students can call the help line and speak with a trained mental health professional. These professionals can offer emotional support and share resources.

The help line can be reached by calling (504) 349-7629 and is operational weekdays from 10:00 a.m. until 1:00pm and then again from 4:00 p.m. until 6:00pm.

EVERY KID A KING

Every Kid a King, a local organization that aims to meet the immediate needs of disadvantaged families, has partnered with the Louisiana Leadership Institute and law enforcement agencies to provide free meals for families to cook at home. Distribution will begin Saturday, March 21st on a drive-thru only basis at 10 a.m. at the Louisiana Leadership Institute, located at 5763 Hooper Rd. in Baton Rouge.

Citizens will be asked to not get out of their cars. Local law enforcement members will distribute the meals, which are limited to one package per car on a first come, first served basis. The drive-thru service will happen every Saturday until further notice. For more information, call Kasey Williams at 225-342-9514 or email sen14@legis.la.gov.

THREE O'CLOCK PROJECT

Meals for kids in Baton Rouge will be delivered along numerous routes starting Monday, March 23. The effort is a partnership between the Three O'Clock Project, BREC, Taco de Paco, and several community non-profits. They say they plan to distribute around 20,000 meals per day for kids 18 and under.

The project announced it will serve breakfast and lunch from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday at the following locations:
