2021 HOUSTON ANNUAL LUNCHEON

JAIME CASAP

Jaime Casap is the Chief Education Evangelist at Google. Casap evangelizes the potential of digitalization as an enabling capability in pursuit of promoting inquiry-based learning models. He collaborates with school systems, educational organizations, and leaders focused on building innovation into our education policies and practices. Before he joined Google 13 years ago, Casap spent seven years as a strategy and organization consultant at Accenture, where he worked with companies in financial services, government, utilities, healthcare, electronics, and high tech.

In addition to his role at Google, Casap is founder of Ghetto People Productions, an organization focused on discovering talent and innovation where no one else is looking.

He serves as an advisor to dozens of organizations focused on learning, skill development, and the future of work. He is the coauthor of Our First Talk About Poverty, as a way to talk to children about poverty. Casap also teaches a 10th grade communication class at the Phoenix Coding Academy, and guest lectures at Arizona State University.

He speaks on education, digitalization, innovation, Generation Z, and the future of work at events around the world. You can follow and reach him on Twitter at @jcasap and watch his YouTube career advice videos at www.youtube.com/jaimecasap.

ABOUT ACE SCHOLARSHIPS

VISION

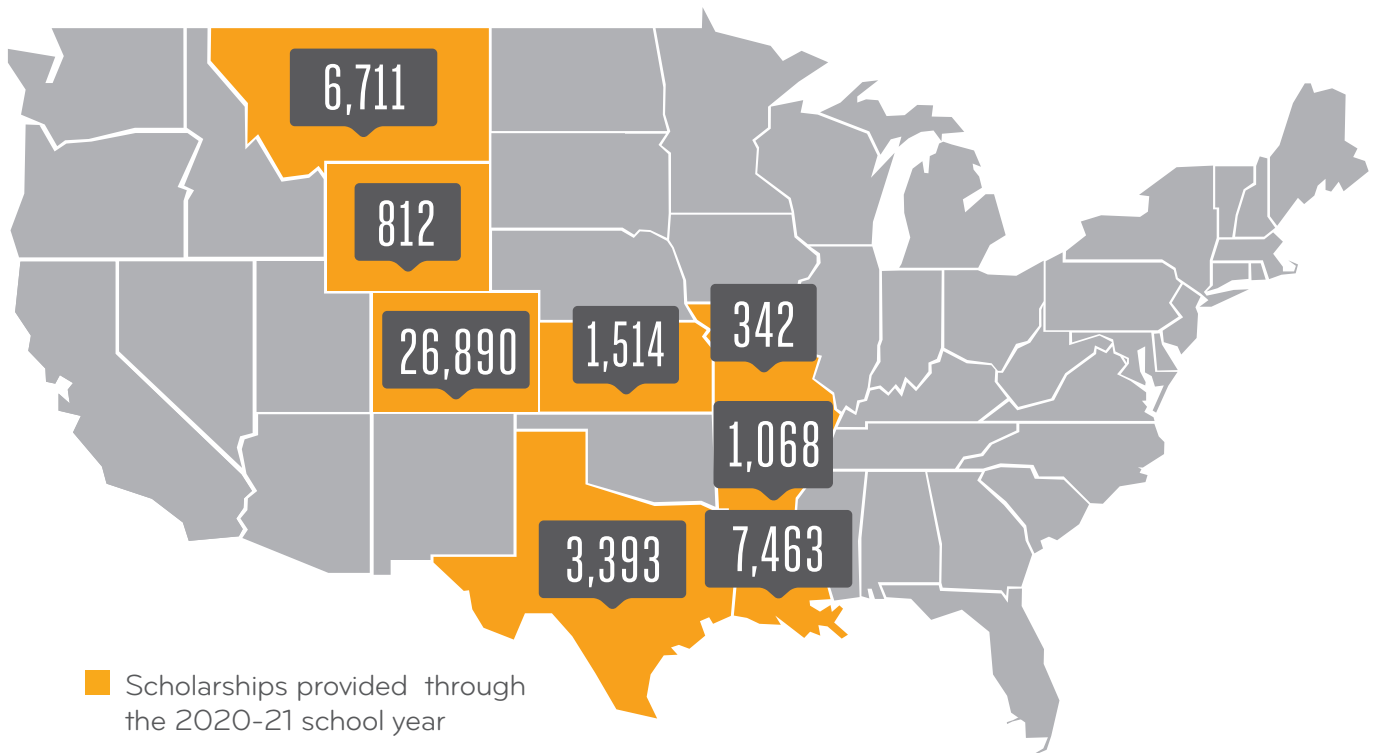

Every child has equal access to a quality education.

MISSION

To provide children of low-income families with scholarships to private schools in grades K-12, and to advocate for expanded school choice.

HISTORY

Since 2000, ACE has provided over 48,600 scholarships to children of low-income families, totaling nearly $120 million—including more than 2,200 scholarships in Houston alone.

For the eighth year in a row, Charity Navigator has awarded us their highest honor, 4-Star Rating for Financial Health, Accountability, and Transparency.
